

Eric Gaff

The Training Arena is fortunate to have Eric Gaff on staff as a basketball trainer and coach. Eric is a former Concord High School post player who led the Minutemen to two sectional championships. Eric went on to play college basketball at Grace College in 2005-2009 where he was named as a 1st Team All-American. In 2008/2009, Eric was ranked number one in Division II in total rebounds per game (12.2) and double-doubles (24) while averaging 21 points per game.

Eric's success on the court as an NAIA All-American for Grace College led him to play professionally in Norway where he signed with the Asker Aliens in 2010 and won the Norwegian BLNO Championship. While in Norway, Eric also coached a U12 and a U18 boys basketball team. Eric most recently played professional basketball in Australia during the 2011 Season. Eric's experience with The Training Arena includes private basketball training, instructional "Big Man" camps, and coaching our boys Arena Heat travel teams.

